DESMOND GREEN

Warwick High School, Class of 2013

Bound for Harvard University

Cambridge, Massachusetts

Vocal Performance & Biology Majors

Desmond Green graduated third out of 330 students in his class at Warwick High School in June 2013. He has an overall 4.54 GPA and an impressive record of community and school service and activities. Desmond's many honors and awards include: selection to the prestigious Summer Residential Governor's School for the Arts at Radford University, recipient of the Kiwanis Club "International Teenager of the Year", the Academic Athletic Excellence Award, AP Scholar with Honors Award, VMEA Honor's Choir Delegate, and First Place winner in Biochemistry at the Science Fair, Tidewater Region.

He has lettered in both Varsity Swimming and Cross Country at Warwick High School. He received the Coach's Award for good leadership in Cross Country and the "Most Improved Swimmer" for Swim Team 2009-2010 season.

Desmond has also been very active in service for his school. He was the Student Council President from 2012-2013, a member of the Student Advisory Group of Education since 2011, a member of the Police Advisory Board, and a member and facilitator of the Student Leadership Program since 2010.

Desmond's plans for the future include becoming a pediatrician. He says he has wanted to be a doctor his whole life. He would also like to have a career in music, specifically singing. He plans to double major in Vocal Performance and Biology at Harvard. Desmond is the son of very proud parents Shannon Rosso and Darryl Green.

Best of luck at Harvard University,
