

Congratulations!
Henry Jordan Memorial
2013 Scholarship Winner

PATRICK HUNT

Warwick High School Class of 2013
Attending East Carolina University

Major – Biology

Honoring Henry Jordan, a noted Warwick class of 1953 student athlete and former All-Pro NFL player, this scholarship is presented annually to one student who “must excel in academics, citizenship, and athletics.” Patrick Hunt is the 2013 honoree of this award. Patrick is a student athlete who graduated from Warwick High School with an un-weighted 3.85 GPA.

Patrick excelled in both sports and academics at Warwick High. He was a two time team captain of the Basketball Team during his four years on the team and was received the honors of Team Offensive MVP and Honorable Mention All- District. In addition to Basketball, Patrick was a member of the Volleyball team for four years. He was captain for three of those years and was also awarded MVP three times. Patrick was named 1st Team All- District his senior year after having been 2nd Team All- District his sophomore year. He received the Marine Corps award for Most Athletic and the President’s Award for academic excellence.

While at Warwick High School, Patrick was involved in many clubs and activities. He was a member of the National Honor Society through which he participated in numerous community service activities. He was also a member of the National Math Honor Society and the National Art Honor Society. He was in the Yearbook Club and also involved with the School Newspaper and served on the Student Advisory Group on Education with the Superintendent of Newport News Schools and the Principal’s Advisory Board with the Warwick High School principal.

In his spare time, Patrick runs his own landscaping business and enjoys golf. He is the son of Fran and Martha Hunt.

Best of luck at East Carolina University,
2013 Henry Jordan Memorial Scholarship Winner
Patrick Hunt!